GLOUCESTER RACE TRACK, July 12 .-

He Beats Long Beach in the First Race-Merry Monarch Gets the Fourth.

RACE TRACK, MONMOUTH PARK, The fields were all large, on purse days, when no stakes are on the card to attract attention.

The weather was warm, for what little breeze there was came from the northwest and banked against the back of the grand stand.

The track was in first class shape.
Longstreet was withdrawn from the first race, leaving Long Beach and "Heaming, the former being favorite.

"I never thought," quoted one of the laisnt, "that I would see the day when Long Beach would be a three to five price of the grand stand.

The track was in perfect condition, and a gentle breeze sweet through the grand stand, making the track by the sea the most pleasant place imaginable. Little knots of horsemen stood around the paddock before the races, all discussing and to a man declaring themselves against Starter McLaughlin. McLaughlin's temper has gotten him into the bad graces of both turfmen and the public. The talent plunged on Lou Rhett, in the opening race, as though it was all over but the yelling. They were kept at 15 to 1, upset the talent by winning easily. long Beach would be a three to five remarkable that Long Beach
